'Pepper' Martin fought Napanee fires 30 years

2 Sept 1980
By Janet Kempenaar
Staff Writer

The firefighter put a ladder against a two-storey house and climbed up to the window. When he got into the room he began washing down the walls.

After a while he tried to move forward, to get into another room, but he discovered he couldn't move. Because of the thick smoke, he couldn't see what was holding him back.

When the fire was extinguished and the smoke finally cleared, the firefighter discovered why he couldn't move -- he was in a bathtub.

"I didn't think it was very funny at the time, but back at the station we had some good laughs about it," said Harold "Pepper" Martin, a 30-year veteran of the Napanee fire department. He fought over 2,000 fires during that time.

Harold 'Pepper' Martin
... fought over 2,000 fires

Martin, who recently retired, says he wishes he wrote down some of the things that happened during his 30 year job as a firefighter.

"It's too late now to do that, because I can't remember all of them," he said.

For all the things that did happen during those 30 years, however, Martin was given a dinner on Aug. 8 by his fellow firefighters.

"They gave me a plaque, a medal and a patio table set, the kind with the umbrella," said Martin. "And, I got a special letter from the fire marshall," he proudly added.

Martin said one of the worst parts of his job was having to pick up bodies. "It wasn't too nice having to pick them up, especially when it was cold and wet," he said.

The toughest time, however, was in the winter.

"Sometimes it would be so cold, you'd be half frozen," Martin explained. "And someone would have to take a hose key to break off the ice from the coat buckles."

Martin went on to say not too many people realize fighting fires is only part of the job. "There are inspections to be made and paper work to do," he explained.

"It's a job that demands all hours of the day and night from a worker," he added. "All in all though, the good times overlook the bad times."

Martin, who will be 60 on Dec. 25, is driving a transport for Ault Foods. He usually drives from Napanee to Belleville, Toronto, Peterborough or Prescott.

Although Martin's first name is really Harold, most people know him as Pepper.

"Pepper Martin is the name of a baseball player that played on the St. Louis Cardinals," he said. "One of the guys at the station called me that once and it just stuck with me."

Martin is living at 17A Dundas St., with wife Mary. They have eight children: James, Robin Allistone, Edward, Evan, Sam, Stella, Greig, and Peter. Their youngest was killed in an automobile accident.

Although Martin says he would probably do it all over again if he had to, he wonders what he would do if he knew then what he knows now.

"It's hard to say what I would do," he said.

Martin or Tanner.

Emas Martin born circa 1765-70 whose name appears on the U.E. list appendix came with wife and three children from Vermont to Kingston before 1800 and settled in Pittsburg just beyond Kingston Mills. A cheese factory still stands on the property which is Lot in Conc. He sold to a Martin from Ireland, whose family still occupies the land, and removed to Lot 42 Conc. VI of Ernesttown. In 1794 he was appointed constable for Amherst Island (Thurs Apr 10) The trip from Vermont was made in a cart and there was then at Kingston only two or three log houses. In 1837 or 8 he returned to Vermont with his son Amos to see relatives and while there was called Mr. Tanner. Elisha M. says that he was absent from his family for some years and returned bringing with him a son Simon by a second wife. Perhaps he took the name Tanner while away. During his stay in Vermont he died & was buried there. He married Susan Ball who is believed to be a ~~sister~~ ^{sister} of ~~John~~ ^{Solomon} or Shadrack Ball who were soldiers and loyalists, the former in Jersey's and the latter in Loyal Rangers. Emas Martin

1 Emas Martin, U.E., following the American Revolution 1776-1783 removed from Vermont to Ontario. His arrival occurred between 1783 and 1794 and was by way of Johnstown where he with his wife and three children were provisioned. He apparently settled first ^{near Kingston Mills} ~~at Amherst Island~~ Pittsburg township just where the middle road meets the point road. From here he removed before 1794 to Amherst Island where in 1794 he was made constable. He finally settled on lot 1 line 6 of Ernestown Township. Sometime between 1806 and 1809 he returned to Vermont. After ^{a few} ~~several~~ years of separation both he and his wife thinking the other dead remarried, he in Vermont and she in Ontario. Sometime after 1820 he returned to Ontario bringing with him a son Simeon by his second wife. ^{During winter of} In 1837 or 8 he returned to Vermont with his son Amos and was greeted as Mr. Tanner. Shortly after this he died and was buried in Vermont.

He was a veterinary surgeon and for his time was quite proficient. He has the honor of being the first Senior Warden of Lodge No 6 A F + A M Ernestown in 1803 and of having been Junior Warden in 1806 ^{in 1804 list of membership as} and one of this lodge's charter members. His wife was Susannah Ball born 1761-72 who was apparently a daughter of Solomon ^{no} Ball U.E. of Vermont. She in 1809 remarried Peter Asselstine and in 1820 Hughson Walker. No children were born of these marriages. She died 1854 and is buried in Wilton Cemetery.

He is mentioned in the official records as follows.

2 Kingston Ontario Apr 10 1794 appointed constable for Amherst Island (Early Records of Ontario - Adam Short).

1 Appendix B. U & L Book 1784-1884 - Martin Emas - a wife and three

Served as Mayor For Twenty Years

Dr. W. Fred Park Died From Heart Attack at Amherstburg

AMHERSTBURG, Jan. 3—(CP)—Dr. W. Fred Park, known throughout Western Ontario as the man who served for 20 years as mayor of Amherstburg, died suddenly at his home today, a scant half-hour after he had tended his last patient for the day.

A heart attack, one of the many he suffered in recent years, brought death to the doctor who had played such a prominent part in the affairs of this town during the 35 years he had lived here.

Dr. Parks' death followed by only two days the death of a close friend and namesake, Dr. J. T. Park, who was the oldest physician in Amherstburg. Dr. Fred Park attended his colleague before he died. They were not related.

Born 64 years ago in Chatham, Dr. Park attended school in that town and graduated from the Chatham high school at 16. He entered the University of Toronto and at 20 received him M.D. degree. Too young to procure a licence to practice, Dr. Park remained at the university for another year as a teacher of astronomy. He first started his practice of medicine at Harrow in 1893 and at the turn of the century took up residence here.

Ontario Domination Feared in Montreal

Move to Get C.N.R. Ter- minal Completed to Be Started

MONTREAL, Jan. 3.—(CP)—Demand by Montreal the Dominion Government spend $6,000,000 immediately to complete the Canadian National Railways terminal here should be made as soon as possible, so that Ontario does not run away with Federal perquisites, Alderman J. Allan Bray stated here yesterday.

In announcing he would bring the terminal question before the next meeting of Council, Alderman Bray said, in an interview, he does not like the look of things at Ottawa "now that Prime Minister King commands coast-to-coast Liberal Commons, in which Quebec counts for less than it did in previous Parliaments."

French-Canadians need to be on the job, Alderman Bray continued. "Montreal can continue to be a big transportation centre, or it can slump to second place, with Toronto in the lead," he added. "Don't forget that when Ontario had only ten deputies in the Commons they were already at work to try and get headquarters of the National Railways moved there. And today the Government has a minister of marine, too, who is from Ontario. He has already killed local harbor boards."

Toronto Boost Feared

"I am not accusing any one of anything, but it is up to us to see that, with the change in the Liberal line at Ottawa, and the much larger place Ontario plays now in the Government of the country, there is no move toward neglecting Montreal or other parts of Quebec—no move to little this port and undertake the Lawrence waterway, for instance, which would put Toronto into first place on the Eastern waterboard."

Prohibited From Importing Silver

Action of Bombay Bullion Board — London and N. Y. Comment

BOMBAY, Jan. 3—(AP)—The Bombay Bullion Board today adopted a resolution prohibiting members from importing silver from foreign countries. The action was believed to be a definite step toward straightening out the kinks that have caused a virtual tie-up in silver transactions since the United States Treasury recently changed its silver buying policy in world centres.

VIEW IN LONDON

LONDON, Jan. 3—(AP)—The steps taken by the Bombay Bullion Board in prohibiting members from importing silver from foreign countries was taken here to indicate a return to more normal conditions in the Far Eastern market and the first step in re-establishment of forward contracts.

IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 3—(AP)—Silver brokers in New York interpreted the Bombay prohibition today on the importation of foreign silver as a means for preventing an increase in the possible over-large metal stocks and to stop arbitrating with London.

Biltmore Hotel at Atlantic City, N.J., Destroyed by Fire

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J., Jan. 3—(AP)—Ten men were injured when a general alarm fire destroyed the 100-room Biltmore Hotel early today, driving more than 40 guests into the street in their night clothes.

The hotel was valued at $300,000, according to the owners. All furnishings were destroyed or damaged by water and most of the guests lost their jewellery, clothing and other valuables.

Perjury Charge Over A Marriage Licence

GUELPH, Jan. 3—(CP)—Gordon Ellis Steele of Mount Forest was found guilty in police court today on a charge of subornation of perjury in connection with the issue of a marriage licence while Dorothy Minnie Hillier, 17, was freed when a charge of perjury against her was withdrawn by the Crown. The case arose out of the issue of a marriage licence to the two young people at Fergus, Dec. 24. The girl's age, according to evidence, was given to the issuer, Ralph Rutherford, as 18 years. Steele was remanded to next Wednesday for sentence.

STOLE $4,293 FROM HAMILTON COMPANY

HAMILTON, Jan. 3—(CP)—Said by his counsel, W. O. Davis, to have been worried by the stress of financial difficulties, Walter Bostin pleaded guilty in magistrate's court today to stealing a sum of money from his employers, the Victoria Cap Company. Bostin was sentenced to 18 months definite, plus 12 months indefinite in the Ontario Reformatory.

Over a period of years, Bostin, employed as accountant, appropriated $4,293.36 of the company's funds.

Mrs. Rachael Sanderson of Verona Is in Her 89th Year

VERONA— Last week the Verona representative of The Whig-Standard visited Mrs. Rachel Sanderson at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edward Curl and Mr. Curl, with whom she resides at present. The veteran lady who is in her 89th year, was found in comparatively good health and enjoying the perfect use of every faculty. Mrs. Sanderson was born at Wilton, Ont., and is a daughter of the late Silas Martin and Mrs. Martin who before her marriage was Elizabeth Mills, both of whom were descendants of Scotch parentage, moving here with her parents in early childhood. She has spent 85 years of her life in this vicinity. Seventy years ago on Jan. 1 she was married to the late George Thompson, who spent much of his time as a local minister in connection with the Methodist Church.

Some years after Mr. Thompson's death she married the Rev. John Raine, who at that time was in charge of Verona circuit. Some time after the death of Mr. Raine she was again united in marriage to the Rev. Wm. Sanderson, who passed away 15 years ago. A feature of her outstanding career is that she was thrice married to prominent ministers. Another feature in her life which deserves mention is the fact that she was converted at the age of fourteen years and has spent seventy-five years as a consistent Christian. She has always identified herself with all church societies and has made her influence felt in every department of church work. She is still a regular attendant at church as well as the meetings of the Women's Association, of which she is now an honorary member. She has remarkable eyesight and hearing for her years, is unusually active in doing odd jobs of work. She takes full charge of her own room and clothing and this year took an active part in preparing the Christmas dinner which she enjoyed with her two daughters, Mrs. S. M. Irish of Kingston, and Mrs. Curl with whom she resides. Her memory is apparently unimpaired and she enjoys relating incidents of her young life and of conditions as they were more than eighty years ago. She is well posted in modern ideas and takes a keen interest in current events. Mrs. Sanderson has but two daughters, both by her first husband, and with whom she now divides her time. She has two grand daughters and three great grandchildren. She always enjoys spending the winter season in Verona as it is convenient to attend church where she has been a familiar figure for over eighty years. To the writer the veteran lady expressed hope that she had not reached the limit of her usefulness and that she might be spared to enjoy many more anniversaries of the Yuletide season.

In giving an account of her childhood she well remembers when the principle work on the farm was done by ox teams and when the greater part of Frontenac County was a veritable wilderness.

The cold weather of the past week has put the skating rink in fine condition. It was opened to the public on Saturday and was well patronized. Vincent Pue is business manager and has charge of the rink and the dressing rooms, which are situated in part of his store building adjacent to the arena.

History of Stanstead Leo P. Q. B. F. Hubbard 1874

Q. Bliss

P. 59 Leonard Martin & his family came from Peacham, Vt. Their children are settled mostly around them.

73 Hatley, Stanstead. Among the early settlers of this neighborhood was the family of Daniel Martin.

125. A. P. Ball Esq., son-in-law of Col. Deleh Pomroy was manager at Stanstead Plain of branch of Eastern Townships Bank. Mary Lee Pomroy to Aug 16 1827 m. A. P. Ball Esq. Mr. Ball was for many years engaged in mercantile business at Sherbrooke, but he subsequently removed to Stanstead Plain, where, in addition to the bank agency, he sustains the office of magistrate & is otherwise employed in public affairs.

143 Family of J. W. Martin

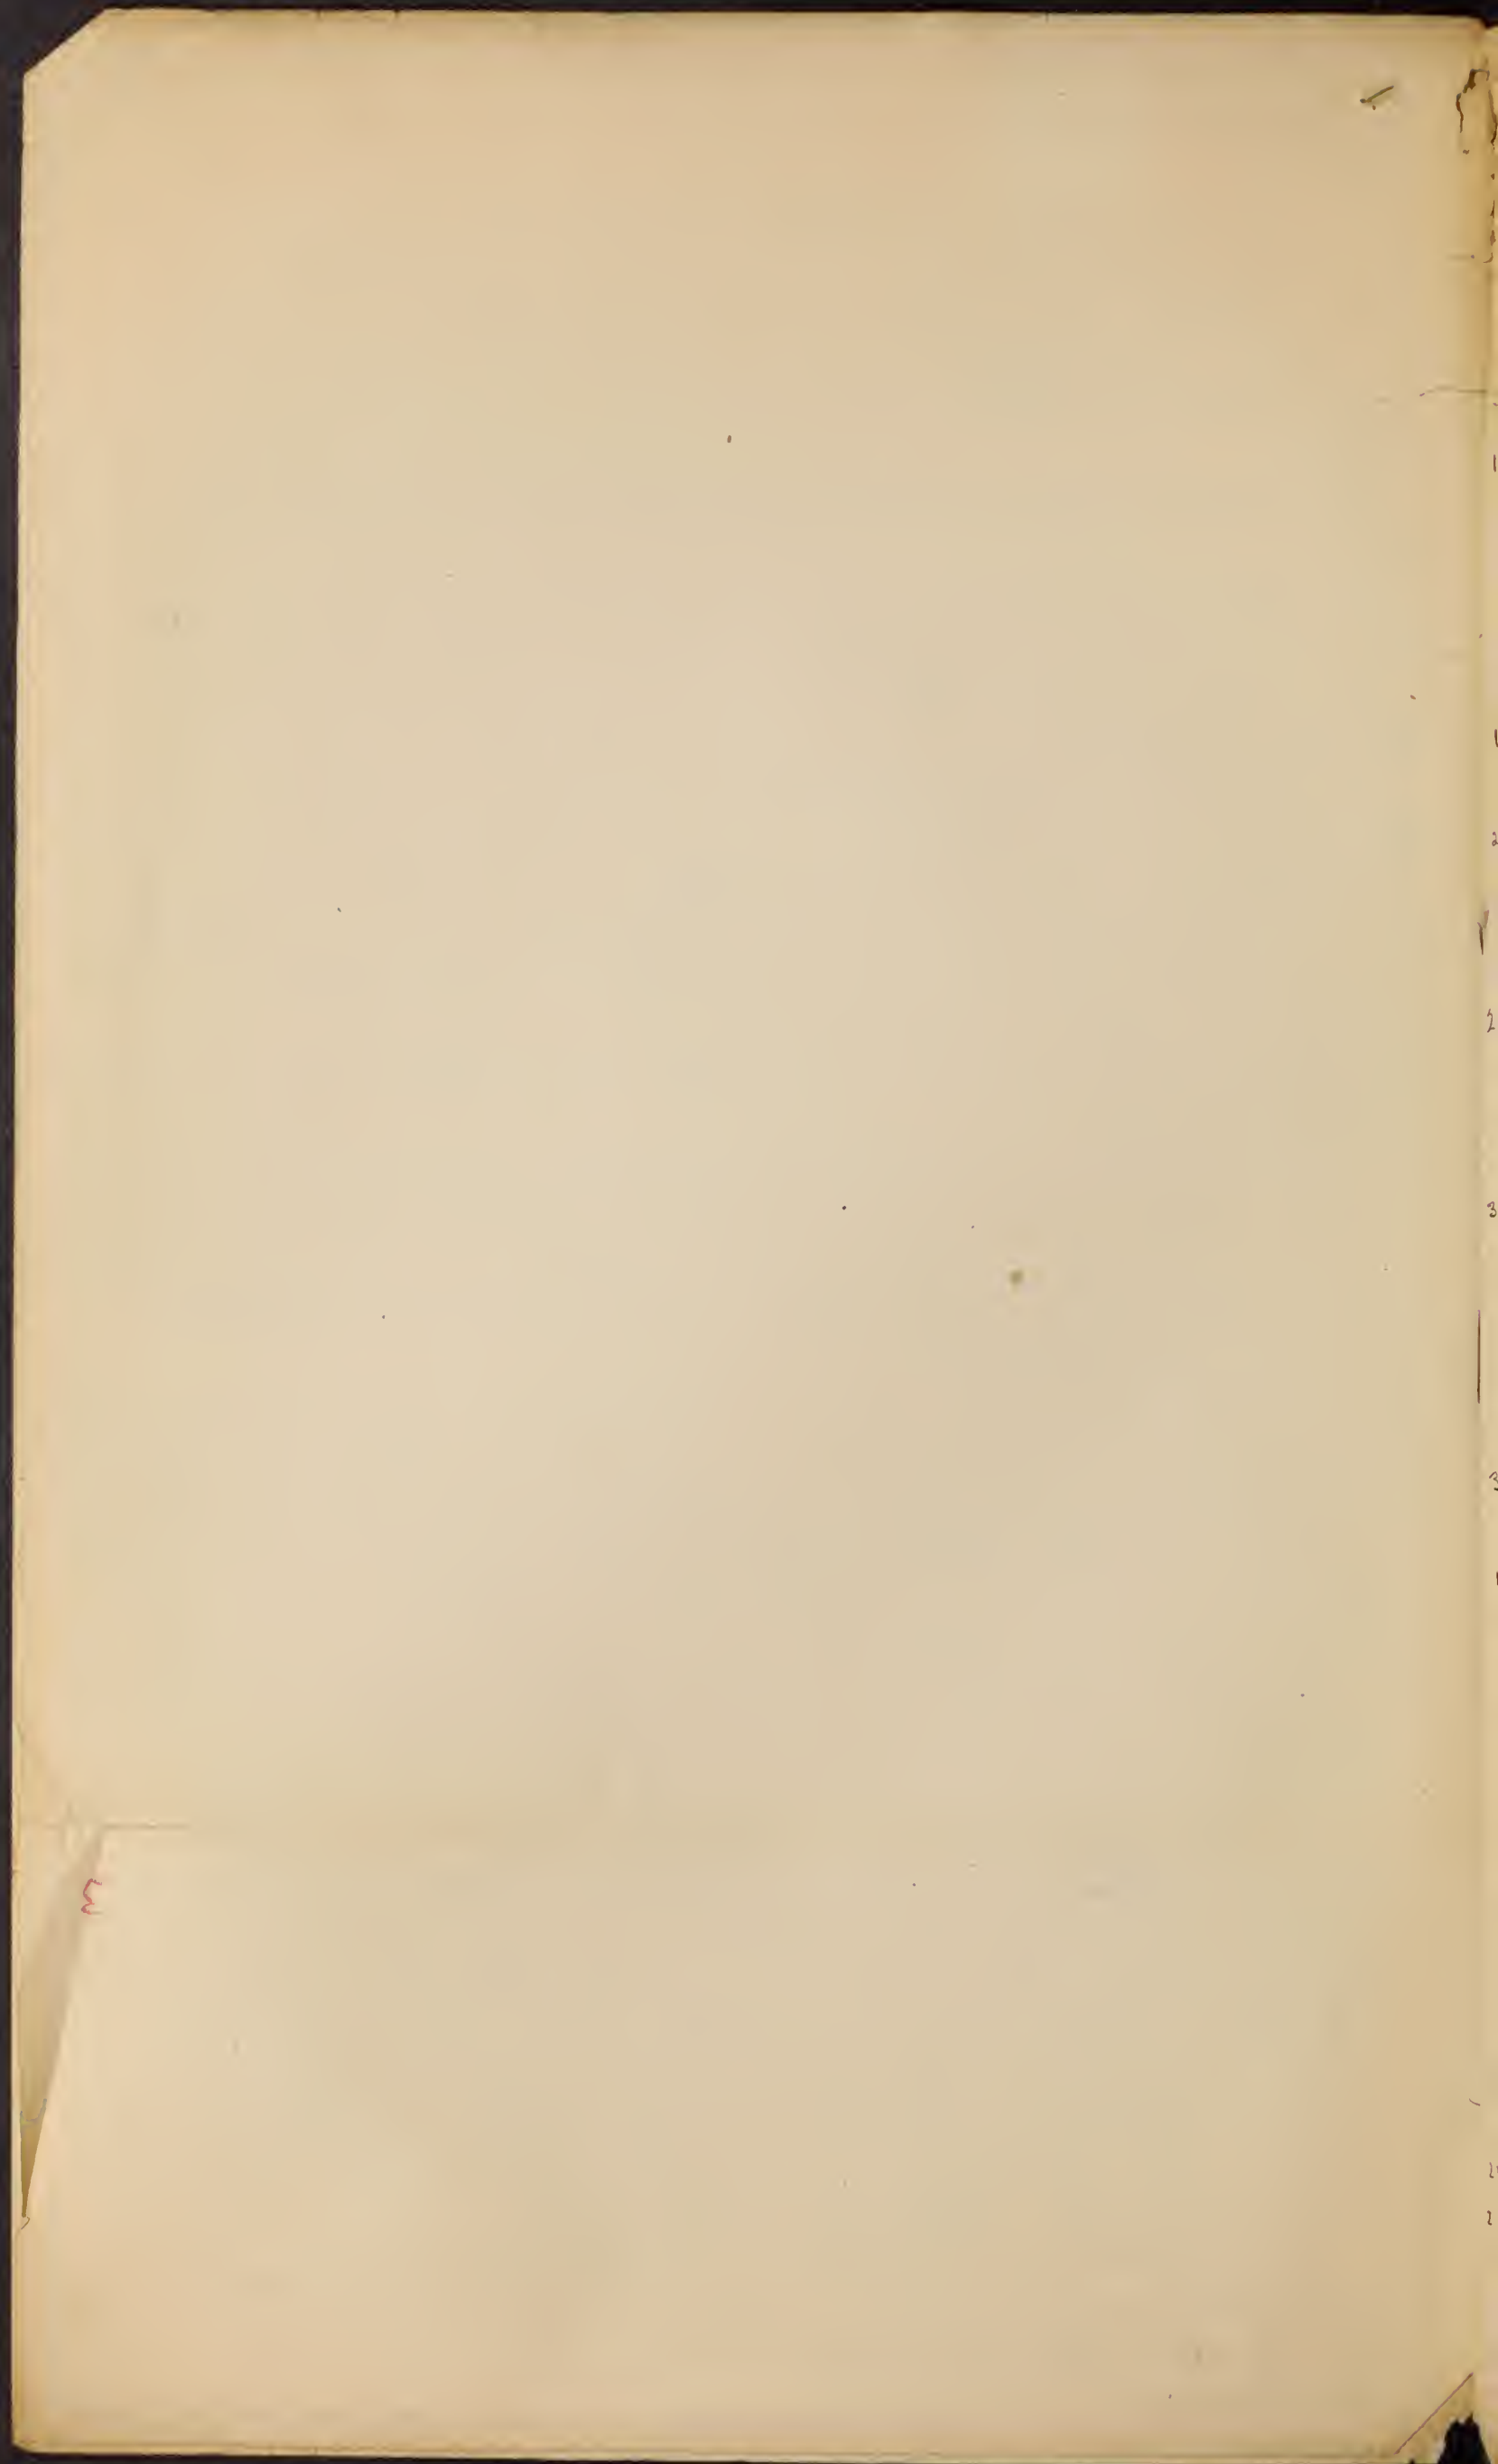

Jos. Winthrop Martin of the sixth generation of the American branch of the family is the descendant of an old family in Somersetshire, Eng. Members of the family came to New England as early as 1635 & located at Weymouth & Hingham. They united with the colony that settled at Rehoboth in 1644 & Swansea in 1667, in the latter towns their descendants are still to be found, occupying the same farms possessed by their ancestors for over 200 years.

In 1796 Mr. Martin's family removed from Rehoboth, Mass into the then unsettled portion of Northern Vermont, & finally located in Caledonia County. The subject of this sketch was born at St. Johnsbury, 12 Jan. 1801.

An elder brother having settled at East Stanbridge L.C. where he still resides Mr. M. concluded to follow him & on the 1st May 1822 he reached Stanstead where he finally settled. For some time he carried on the saddle & harness business but for many years he has devoted himself to farming. On Jan. 26, 1839 he was commissioned by the Gov.-Gen., Sir Geo Colborne, Lieut. of Cavalry, which office he retained until the close of the rebellion. While on an expedition, in command of Col. Alex Kilbourn, to secure some prisoners, they were fired upon by a company of men in ambush. Col. K. was dangerously wounded & Lieut M. escaped almost by a miracle; several balls grazed his head & body & his horse shot under him, but owing to the darkness of the night, he succeeded in effecting his escape unhurt.

On Feb 28, 1845 he was one of the commissioners of small causes for the township of Stanstead, & on Oct 21st of the same year was appointed J.P. but declined serving. He was again appointed on May 11, 1860. Mr. M. has at various times been a member of the County & Village Councils.

On May 3, 1828 he m. Almira Deborah, youngest child of Wm & Deborah (Buell)
